

Area Attractions

Charleston, South Carolina is a city of cobblestone streets, pristine beaches, sand, rivers, and ocean, not to mention battleships at Patriots Point, Fort Sumter, beautifully preserved architecture, the city Market, and wonderful southern food. These sights all await you in Charleston, South Carolina. The city deserves its ranking as one of the most popular vacation destinations in the country. We hope that when you join us in for "Sweet Tea and Sunshine" you will be able to spend some time in our beautiful and historic city.

Below is a list of some sites you may want to visit.

Historic District

Aiken-Rhett House Museum
48 Elizabeth St.
Edmondston-Alston House Museum
21 E. Battery St.
Heyward-Washington House Museum
87 Church St.
Joseph Manigault House Museum
350 Meeting St.
Nathaniel-Russell House Museum
51 Meeting St.

Charleston City Market
188 Meeting St.
Charleston Harbor Tours
10 Wharfside St.

Carriage Rides
Across from the City Market
Rainbow Row
83-107 E. Bay St.
Exteriors only
Old Exchange and Provost Dungeon
122 E. Bay St.
Charleston Visitor Center
375 Meeting St.
Calhoun Mansion House Museum
16 Meeting St.
Gibbes Museum of Art
135 Meeting St.

Outside of the city

Fort Sumter National Park
Board a ferry boat from Liberty
Square in downtown or Patriots Point
Drayton Hall
3380 Ashley River Rd.
Oldest unrestored plantation
house in America
Middleton Place Plantation
4300 Ashley River Rd.
Magnolia Plantation and Gardens
3550 Ashley River Rd.
Patriots Point Navel and Maritime Museum-home of the USS
Yorktown
40 Patriots Point Rd.
Mount Pleasant, SC.
Charleston Tea Plantation
6617 Maybank Hwy.
Charles Town Landing State Historic site
1500 Old Town Rd.
Colonial Charles Town

Beaches

Folly Beach
Kiawah Island
Seabrook Island
Isle of Palms
Sullivan's Island