TLS1 – Brief History of the Horse Toys by Mary Barrett

Fee: $96

When mankind first discovered that food was not the only use he had for horses, our world changed dramatically. And a new toy was added to the children of the world's toy boxes; pull toys, statues and riding toys. From the very first hobby stick horse to elaborately carved and gilded rocking horses of royalty, we will take a glimpse at all these. Heels down, elbows in, here we go! You will receive a 1" hobby horse and a 1" slant board riding horse.

TLS2 – The Magic of Mary and the Whimsy of Mackenzie! by Ginger Landon-Siegel

Fee: $110

Whether you love the colorful, inspirational images of Mary Engelbreit or the eccentric, whimsical artistry of Mackenzie-Childs, both artists have a way of bringing a smile to your face. The brightly decorated dollhouse by ME is familiar to most miniaturists, but, did you know that Mackenzie-Childs miniaturized their furniture, glass and pottery pieces to fill a magnificent 2" scale dollhouse as well? Mackenzie once said, "I'm going to be playing as my work and my work will be my play!" So, on that spirit, let's play! And, while doing so we'll explore their artistic progression, take a peek into the incredible Mackenzie dollhouse and create some fun minis to add to your collection. Your gift, a piece ready for display, will have either a Mary or a Mackenzie theme, which will it be!

TLS3 – It's Always October in Tennessee by Rebecca Lipscomb & Winifred Holloway

Fee: $106

Come celebrate autumn and all things Halloween at this luncheon. Winifred and Becky will regale you with ghost stories and true, funny stories. You will receive one of Winifred's dollies all dressed up for trick or treating and a crate of Becky's pumpkins. There will be lots of cool decorations, favors and lots of fun. Happy treating, no tricks!
