

“Old Southern Charm”
2024 National Convention

August 1-4, 2024

Franklin, TN

Welcome to the Grand Opening of “Old Southern Charm”. We are so excited you will be joining us at the bed and breakfast, otherwise known as the Franklin Marriott Cool Springs. Many of you may remember it from 2019. The hotel was perfect for our convention and we are happy to be back in Tennessee.

Our Committee has worked hard to make this convention one you will not want to miss. The expanded sales room dealer list has a lot of your favorites, with some new names on the agenda. Preconvention workshops, Registered workshops and Theme Luncheons have been chosen from an amazing group of teachers and artisans. All submissions were so fabulous, that we had a hard time to narrowing the list.

The garage sale is always a crowd pleaser and we are thrilled to report that the queens of the garage sale – Sue Ann Ketchum and Katie Vitullo will be in charge. Nancye Claypool and Ellen Yunker are planning the exhibit room – can’t you just imagine? You will also want to venture to the Hospitality room. Chris Ernst and Debbie Love have lots of surprises in store.

There are so many things to do and see in Franklin and the surrounding area, you may want to come early and stay late. We’ll leave the light on for you!
