

Hello from the bottom of the African continent!

A hugely diverse country with 11 national languages which are all in our national anthem which you can here on this link:

Here in Cape Town, which we call the Mother City, we welcome more and more visitors from around the world every year as it is in easy reach from all manner of vacations from city life to safaris. Surfing, wine tasting, shark diving, botanical gardens, off roading and everything in between.

The first Saturday in September sees our annual Miniature Show in Cape Town followed by a week long miniature convention filled with amazing workshops, wonderful local meals, delicious wines and awesome miniaturists, South African and international.

The annual show is run by the Miniature Guild of Cape Town www.miniatures-capetown.org and the convention link is <https://miniconvention.weebly.com/>
